SUPPLEMENT.

A Supplement sheet accompanies this number of the Daily British Colonist.

Reciprocity.

We hope some of our legislators will not allow the present session to pass over without devoting some attention to a reciprocity treaty with the United States. A little more attention to the commercial and industrial interests of the country would assist materially in the development of the Island. Beyond the ordinary routine of voting money to pay officials, passing a few trifling bills, and spending a few pounds on the roads, nothing substantial and expansive has been done. It is high time that something beyond nursery legislation should be taken in hand. If we want to grow rapidly in wealth and importance we have to turn our natural advantages to account. If we desire to advance in the only path to distinction open to the colony-a maratime and commercial one-we will have to take up the question of a Reciprocity treaty with the United States at as early a date as possible. The sooner it is taken in hand the quicker the treaty will be inaugurated. If the preparatory steps be taken this session, it will in all probability require a year or so before such a treaty can be ratified. Two years hence the reciprocity between the United States and the Eastern Provinces will expire. If success should not crown our efforts before that period, by proper management it may then, when that treaty is renewed, as it most certainly will be. It is even not unlikely that the Red River Settlement, Assimiboia, will be included. The subject has already been agitated there; and in all prooability the only delay in advancing it there lies in the neglect of the Colonial Office to emancipate Assinibola from the Hudson Bay Company. Were that once done-and the way events are tending it cannot be long before it will be-that isolated community will be knocking at the doors of the United States Congress to be included in the renewed reciprocity treaty. After Assiniboia all that would be left of British North America to be included in a reciprocity would be British Columbia, Vancouver Island, and the Hadson Bay Territories. With the interest that we have at stake in

In fact we are not the only parties interested. It cannot be said that the advantages would be one-sided. On the contrary, reciprocity would be an equal advantage to California or Oregon with ourselves. If the San Francisco consumers can get our coal a dollar cheaper a ton, or our sawn lumber 20 per cent. less a thousand feet, or other articles at an equally reduced rate, it will require no further argument to convince them require no further argument to convince them that they are interested in promoting reciprocity, and interested in a way that every one will feel it in his pocket. These commodities we can supply San Franciscocheap that the allow here. one will feel it in nis pocket. These commodities we can supply San Franciscocheaper than they can be had elsewhere on this coast. Consequently the demand would steadily increase. As the demand increased, so would the consumption of California or Oregon produce increase here; and the developement of our country stimulate the mdustry of theirs. The prospective importance of British Columbia would readily induce Oregon and California to seize the opportunity to send in their produce free. They would find that there was no commercial barrier to trade; but that they enjoyed international free trade. The farmers' interests of British Columbia would not suffer; as the remoteness of the farming districts from the sea-board is a more effectual protection than a tariff. Whilst the consumer at present would get the necessaries of life cheaper, the revenue of the colony would be raised by higher duties on luxuries, that only the wealthy would buy. Any scheme of reciprocity ought to include the whole British Territory of the Pacific—even British Siberia. even British Siberia.

this matter there should be as little delay as OREGON .- We have copies of the Portland Times and Advertiser to the 3d inst, containing late news from Salmon River to March 9th. The bodies of three persons, supposed to be white men, have been found near the head of Sawyer's Canon, on Camas Prarie, badly decayed, or nearly all the flesh eaten off their bodies by wolves..... A few severe cases of scurvy have occurred at the mines... There are about two hundred men and as many horses at the foot of Craig's mountain, near the old mill stand. They will probably start over the prairie in a few days and break the road—only two miles of which is extremely bad. When the road is broken, horsemen can pass into Salmon river without serious trouble.....The snow is going off rapidly, caused by a heavy "Chinook wind," which has been blowing for several days.....Provisions are scarce in the mines, yet the probability is that the stock on hand will last until pack trains are able to get in with fresh supplies.....A party of "roughs" recently attempted to trample on the mining laws in Florence, in a disputed claim affair, when suddenly about two hundred resolute men, armed with rifles and shot guns came down upon them unawares, and immedia ely put a stop to their malicious designs.....Rich diagings have been struck on Powder River, which will pay well.

THE "SIERRA NEVADA."-We are extremely glad to learn that the steamship Sierra Nevada has numerous certificates to prove her entire respectability and seaworthiness. From her performances while on the last trip to this port, there is no person in this or any other white settle-ment on the const but believes that she needs them all to insure her the confi dence of the traveling public or a share of the mail subsidy money. The agents claim A ho have expended $75,000 for her improvement recently, and robody doubts that she stood in need of every penny of the expenditure. Some persons go so far as to say that $75,000 more might be expended on her and she would still be the same "old tub" as of yore.

CRUSHED TO DEATH .- About two o'clock yesterday afternoon, a very sad accident occurred on Store street. A curly haired, bright eyed little fellow, about two years of age, generally known as "Jimmy," who was lately brought here from over the Sound, where his parents are said to reside, while playing in the middle of the thoroughfare, was knocked down and run over by a passing horse and cart and terribly crushed. The poor little fellow managed to reach the sidewalk without assistance, but expired in a few moments, greatly to the grief of his young playmates. His body was left at tho road ide, as a melancholy warning to all future incautious dogs.

COURT OF ASSIZES.—This Court met yes-terday at 11 o'clock, A. M. The case of Molasses, 249 kgs. 165 secks. 106 votatoes, Sweet, 92 Molasses, 249 kgs. 165 secks. 106 secks. 106 secks. 107 secks. 107 secks. 108 George Tomline Gordon, for embezzlement, was called, when the Attorney General stated that he would try the accused on the second indictment, which charges him with having embezzled and appropriated to his own uses the sum of £90, received from fiquor licenses at Nanaimo. The trial, with the consent of the Court and counsel for the delence, was set for Wednesday next, to which day, at 10 o'clock, the common jurors were discharged.

AN INDIAN WHISKY CASE .- Thomas Foley was yesterday arraigned at the Police Court for giving whisky to a squaw the night before. Officer Stapleton detected him in the nouse with the woman and the whisky and arrested him. An Indian testified that the accused had brought the liquor there, and notwithstanding an indignant denial, the accused was fined £10 or ordered to serve three months in the chain-gang.

Spoons. - Yesterday officer Taylor collared a Sawash for stealing spoons from an hotel. The thief formerly worked in the kitchen and had capswallowed so many spoons that the affairs of the institution in the soup line came to a dead lock. A watch was therefore set, and Mr. Injine caught in the very act.

FRACAS. - Yesterday, at the corner of Yates and Government streets, our highly popular town-crier got into a row. A gentleman passing the corner was saluted by Butts, and replied by striking him over the head with a cane. Butts struck back with his fist, and received several severe blows from the cane in return. The parties were separated before any material damage was done on either side.

AIMIE MARCHAND .- The sum of $150 has been raised by subscription to procure counsel for Aime Marchand. Mr. Ring has been retained for the defence. The caso will come before the Grand Jury on Tuesday next. PUGET SOUND .- Some of the California volunteers stationed at Fort Steilacoom have proved themselves rascals by committing several robberies in that vicinity recently.

The Puget Sound Herald comes down heav ily on the offenders. GRAND JURY .- This body met yesterday morning but adjourned without transacting any business. The next meeting will take place on Tuesday the 16th inst. Keenan's Fashion Saloon will be opened this evening. There were several arrests last night for minor offences.

It must have required a great deal of courage and patience to experiment on such animals as the lion, the tiger, the mouse, the caterpiller. The result of these experiments shows that the pulse of the hyena beat 124 times in a minute, and afterwards, the animal being less excited, 94 times; in the arm-pit and in the groin, the lion gave 40 beatings, and 16 respirations in the same space of time; the heart of the tiger 96; the tapir, 44; the horse, 40; the wolf, 45; the fox, 43; the bear, 38; the monkey, 48; the goose, 110; the hen, 140; the eagle, Assessment Roll.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST .- One of the caps" thrown by the crowd seems to have fitted the "ex-Clerk of the Ass-essors," and has evidently exercised a wholesome pressure on his cranium to have enabled him to throw such a flood of light on the nototious 'Assessment Roll of 1861," and I have no doubt but a "discriminating public" will fully appreciate the important facts disclosed. There is another thing that the ex-Clerk deserves praise for, and that is for taking a share of the blame for the inaccuracies in the "Roll." Now here is another fact disclosed, that the ex-Clerk is an ex-Clerk doubtless from his meapacity to make out a simple copy from a simple list. Let the discriminating public" look again and judge of the enormity of the offence with which an "Hon. M. P. P." is charged; he ac tually put downin his return "11 lots on Government, Gordon and Humboldt streets;" cnl the goose, 110; the hen, 140; the eagle, 160; the vulture, 150; the hawk, 110; the frog, 80; the salamander, 80; the lobster, 76: the caterpillar, 36; the butterfly, 60; What is most astonishing in these researches and studies is uniformity of circulatory beatings that exists in organizations so widely different.

IMPORTS.

Imports to Victoria. V. I.. for the Month Westber the avsClock is trained to him to fit! What a cruel, dishonest heart he must have had! Mr. ex-Clerk infers that such a cruel, dishonest heart he must have had! Mr. ex-Clerk infers that such a return was made to puzzle the Assessors, when according to "Scheiule A" to the "One per Cent. Tax Act, 1860," the number of the block or lot is not required to be given, only the "admeasurements and where situated." From this the public will judge of the unwarrantable act of the M. P. P. for my own part I cannot see what particular gain it would be to any one to try and confuse or puzzle the Assessors, and if the "Hon. M. P. P." tried to do so he was to blame; whether the property was put down on the known or unknown list it matters not, as the taxes have to be paid in either case; but most decidedly the chances of getting off free are in favor of the person whose property is in the unknown list. think of it! Holloway's Ointment.

A Cure for Piles and Fistulas.

Inflammation of sensitive parts, piles, fistulas, and such like painful diseases may be presently relieved, and ultimately cured, by the proper and dilignent use of this cooling and healing trintment, whose action should, in such cases, be nested by functs, us doses of Pills: ere many days have elapsed the anxious patient will experience a wonderful degree of ense from this treatment. They are equally suitable to both sexes, and all ages.

Gout and Rheumatism.

Gout and Rheumatism.

The essence of these diseases lie in the blood, which has, floating through each vessel, the pain-giving poison, which irritates and inflames every tissue is comes in connet with, and produces the hot, swollen, elastic enlargement about the joints so characteristic of gouty diseases. The philosophy of cure consists in overcoming this depravity in the blood, which is rapidly purified by the use of the Pills. The Ointment, when rubbed upon the skin, penetrates the system through the pores, acts in unison with the Pills, and soon effects a cure.

Dropsy, Swollen Legs or Ankles.

Dropsy, Swolten Legs of Ankles.

The various kinds of dropsies, whether windy or water, arise from some obstruction to the free circulation though the blood vessels or lymphatics, or depend on the inflamed state of some secreting surface. Holloway's remedies, of which the efficacy cannot be exaggerated, act directly upon the blood, the absorbants and secretions, with a power that no dropsy however inveterate, can long resist. They regulate the proper flow of blood to every organ, and purify it likewise.—they filter out everything that is morbid or injurious,—they throughly regenerate every function, yet potent as they are for good, they are power-less for evil. They do not contain mercury or any noxious substances. They are tsafely and certainly.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, and Old Ulcers

Sad Legs, Bud Breasts, and Occase This invaluable Ointment was never known to fail at the cure of any wound, any sore, or any ulcer, scen be proved by innumerable testimonials from ersons who had been discharged from Hospitals as neurable, and yet by perseverance they have been ade as sound as they were the day they were born, but the from the second that they were the day they were born, which is the second that they were the day they were born, which is the second that they were the day they were born, which is the second that they were the day they were born, which were the day they were the day they were born, which were the second that they were the day they were the day they were the day they were the day they were they were the day they were the day they were they were the day they were they were the day they were they were they were they were they were the day they were the day they were the were they were they were they were they were they were they wer

The Poet Laureate on Prince Albert.

A new edition of Tennyson's Idyls of the King, recently published in London, contains the following lines to the memory of Prince Albert:

recently published in London, contains the following lines to the memory of Prince Albert:

These to his memory—since he held them dear, Perchance as finding there unconsciously Some image of himself—I dedicate, I dedicate, I consecrate with tears—Those Idyls.

Those Idyls.

And, indeed, he seems to me Searce other than my own ideal knight, "Who reverenced his conscience as his king; Whose glory was refressing human wrong; Who spoke no slander, no, nor listened to it; Who loved one only, and who clave to her "Her—over all her realms to their last isle, Commingled with the gloom of imminent war. The shadow of his loss moved like eclipse, Darkening the world. We have lost him; he is gone;
We know him now—all narrow jealousies Are silent; and we see him as he moved, How modest, kindly, all accomplished, wise, With what sublime repression of himself, And in what limits, and how tenderly; Not swaying to this faction or to that; Not making his high place the lawless perch Of winged ambitions, nor a vantage-ground For pleasure; but through all this trace of years Wearing the white flowers of a blameless life, Before a thousand peering littlenesses, In that fierce light which beats upon a throne, And blackens every blot; for where is he Who dares foreshadow for an only son A lovelier life, a more unstained than his? Or how should England, dreaming of his sons, Hope more for these than some inheritance Of such a life, a heart, a mind as thine. Though noble Father of her Kings to be, Laborious for her people and her poor—Voice in the rich dawn of an ampler day—Far-sighted summoner of war and waste To fruitful strifes and rivalries of peace—Sweet nature gilded by the gracious gleam of letters, dear to Science, dear to Art, Dear to thy land and ours—a Prince indeed, Beyond all titles, and a household name, Hearafter, through all times, Albert The Good.

Break not, O woman's heart, but still endure; Break not, O woman's neart, but sint endure; Break not, for though art Royal, but endure, Remembering all the beauties of that star Which shone so close beside thee, that ye made One light together, but has passed and left The Crown a lonely splendor.

May all love—
His love, unseen but felt—o'ershadow thee;
The love of all thy sons encompass thee,
The love of all thy daughters cherish thee,
The love of all thy people comfort thee,
Till God's love set thee at his side again.

NAPOLEON'S IDEA OF MAKING WAR .-The following letter was written by Napoleon to Augereau, on the 21st of February, 1814 :

"What! six hours after receiving the first troops from Spain you are not in the field? Six hours of rest is quite enough for them. I conquered at Nangis with the brigade of dragoons coming from Spain, who from Bay-onne had not drawn rein. Do you say that the six battalions from Ninnes want clothes and equipage, and are uninstructed? Augereau, what miserable excuses! I have destroyed 80,000 enemies with battalions of conscripts, scarcely clothed, and without cattridge boxes. The National Guards are pitiful! I have here 4000 from Angers and Bretagna in round hats, without cattridge boxes, but with good weapons, and I have made them tell. There is no money, do you say? But where do you expect to get You have no teams? Seize them. You have no magazine? Tut, tut! this is too tidiculous! I order you to put yourself in the field twelve hours after you receive this. ridiculous: I order you to put yourself in the field twelve hours after you receive this letter. If you are still the Augereaux of Castiglione, keep your command. If your sixty years are too much for you, relinquish it to the oldest of your general officers. The country is menaced and in danger. It can only be saved by daring and alacrity, and

Be before them. Act no longer as of late. Resume the method and spirit of '93. When Frenchmen see your plume waving in the van, and you first of all exposed to the enemy's fire, you will do with them whatever you will

A GAY LOTHARIO FOR A KING .- The King of the Sandwich Islands seems to be a perfect lady-killer. Recently His Majesty conceived something of a tender attachment toward a young lady who is not exactly of the noblesse, and in order to convince his subjects that he is no "respecter of persons," he calls with his carriage and four at the he calls with his carriage and four at the residence of the fair one, for the purpose of taking her to the ball. He was admitted to the house by the brother of his adored, to whom he stated his errand. The young man in question did not consider it "just the thing" for His Majesty to be running after young ladies, and his Majesty married; and informed his liege that he hoped he would the base his interpretation. not honor his sister with any more attention. Whereupon, His Majesty rebelled pulled out a savage-looking "toothpick," and out a savage-looking "toothpick," and swore by his sacred beard that no one should dictate to him what he should do or what he should not do. The loud noise brought the sturdy father of the fair one, who proceeded straightway to inquire into the merits of the be that we shall have another shooting affair, similar to the one which took place about two years ago, in which a young man was shot by the monarch of these Islands. The unfortunate person referred to died on the anniversary morn of the King's birthday, from the effects of the wound. To recomfrom the effects of the wound. To recom-pense the young man for losing his life, the person of the "autocrai" issued notices to be stuck all over the city, and by these means managed to make a pretty fair show in the funeral line. This is one of the fashions here, among the "upper ten;" they placard a person's death in regular showplaced a person's deam in regular show man's style, and request those who are to take part in the proceedings "to be on hand early." One would think that the last offices toward the "sacred dead" would naturally he conducted a little more privately.

P. S. — I have just learned that His Majesty has just shot the young man above alluded to, and that he is not expected to recover.—Cor. S. F. Herald.

Who is it? - The London Court Journal of a recent date contains the following paragraph:—One of the most charming authoresses, and one of the most beautiful women of her day, has lately been the victim of the most violent-and might have been the most fatal-conduct from her only surviving son.

SLAVEHOLDING BY GOVERNMENT .- Gen.

It sometimes which boys are addicted. It sometimes happens that the cow is turned loose whilst young Cafel is engaged in a game of ball. She immediately hunts him up and as speedily disperses the crowd. No boy is allowed to come near her pet, and woe to the dog or man that should offer violence to Billy. So singular are the actions of this animal that almost every day a public exhibition is called to satisfy some stranger that the stories told are correct. A few days ago Billy brought out his cow to satisfy some doubters, and in the course of his experi-ments attempted to hide himself from his self-constituted guardian by running into a crowd of some 200 people; but the natural fears of the animal were overcome by the love she bore her young master. She fol-lowed him wherever he chose to lead; unhesitatingly going up stairs, into buildings or anywhere else the boy went at the request of bystanders.—Silver Age, Carson City,

His Majesty shook the dagger at father and son, by way of warning. > AN UNPLEASANT SURPRISE .- A wealthy and amiable gentleman of Hinsdale, Mass. who, had been lately matried, returning home hastily one night not long since, found upon retiring, a strange gold watch and chain under his pillow, which proved to be the under his pillow, which proved to be the property of a dashing young man, who had been quite an intimate friend of the gentleman's wife. The husband sold out, and returned to his former home at the West, leaving the gay young man and disgraced wife to enjoy themselves as best they could be this day. at Hinsdale

> WHERE ENGLAND GETS HER TIMBER — Great Britain and Ireland import annually some 27,000,000 cubic feet, or 540,000 loads, of Canadian pine timber, the greater part of which is manufactured on the Ottawa river and its tributaries. The operation of this manufacture extends over upwards of 11,000 square miles, and gives employment to more than 40,000 men.—Once a Week.

> MADAGASCAR .-- The new King of Madagascar, Rada II, is engaged in a pacific revolution, which is calculated to secure the happiness and prosperity of his kingdom. Under the guidance of two Frenchmen MM. Laborde and Lambert, the King has thrown open the entire Island to Europeans, and proposes to make it a free kingdom. The Island has hitherto been closed to strangers.
